Why Choose Creed?

- Heritage: Creed has been crafting fragrances since 1760, with a rich history of creating scents for royalty and celebrities.
- Quality: They use high-quality, natural ingredients to create long-lasting and unique fragrances.
- Exclusivity: Many of their scents are unisex and have a distinct, luxurious appeal.

The History of Creed

- It started as a bespoke tailoring house that also created custom fragrances for royalty and aristocrats. Over the centuries, Creed has remained a family-owned business, passing down its perfumery secrets through seven generations. Today, it's known as one of the most prestigious fragrance houses in the world, with a legacy of crafting scents for historical figures like Napoleon III, Queen Victoria, and Winston Churchill.

Creed's Craftsmanship

- Handmade Fragrances: Creed perfumes are still made by hand in their workshop in France, using traditional methods.

- High-Quality Ingredients: They source the finest raw materials from around the world, such as Florentine iris, Bulgarian rose, and Haitian vetiver.
- Longevity and Sillage: Creed fragrances are known for their excellent performance, with many scents lasting 8–12 hours on the skin.
- Unisex Appeal: While marketed as men's or women's fragrances, many Creed scents are versatile and can be worn by anyone.

Signature Ingredients in Creed Fragrances

- Creed is known for using rare and high-quality ingredients. Here are some of the key components that make their fragrances stand out:
- Ambergris: A rare and precious ingredient derived from sperm whales, used in fragrances like AVENTUS and Millésime Impérial for its warm, marine, and slightly sweet aroma.
- Himalayan Cedarwood: Found in Himalaya, this wood adds a crisp, clean, and slightly spicy note.
- Florentine Iris: A luxurious and powdery note used in Original Vetiver and Royal Mayfair, adding elegance and depth.
- Bergamot: A citrus note used in many Creed fragrances (e.g., Silver Mountain Water, Green Irish Tweed) for a fresh and uplifting opening.
- Sandalwood: A creamy, woody note found in Original Santal and Bois du Portugal, adding warmth and sophistication.
- Pineapple: The star of AVENTUS, this fruity note is both juicy and smoky, creating a unique and addictive scent.

How to Wear Creed Fragrances

To get the most out of your Creed perfume, follow these tips:

- Apply to Pulse Points: Spray on your wrists, neck, and behind the ears.
- Don't Overdo It: Creed fragrances are potent. One or two sprays are usually enough.
- Layer with Matching Products: Some Creed fragrances come with matching shower gels or deodorants (e.g., AVENTUS line). Layering can enhance longevity.
- Store Properly: Keep your bottle in a cool, dark place to preserve the fragrance's integrity.
- Reapply as Needed: While Creed fragrances are long-lasting, you can reapply lightly throughout the day if needed.

Fun Facts About Creed

- Royal Warrants: Creed holds multiple royal warrants, including one from Queen Elizabeth II, making it a favorite among royalty.
- AVENTUS Mania: AVENTUS is so popular that it has inspired countless clones and dupes from other brands.
- Custom Fragrances: In the past, Creed created bespoke scents for clients like Napoleon III and Audrey Hepburn.
- Batch Variations: Due to the natural ingredients and handmade process, some Creed fragrances (like AVENTUS) have slight variations between batches, which collectors love to discuss.
- Unisex Appeal: While marketed as men's fragrances, many Creed scents (e.g., Silver Mountain Water, Virgin Island Water) are loved by women as well.
